https://www.mgsarchitecture.in/updates/news/from-wastewater-to-water-resilience-cii-igbc-advances-nature-based-solutions-in-tamil-nadu.html

The Confederation of Indian Industry's (CII) Indian Green Building Council (IGBC) convened a session on Innovative Nature-Based Wastewater Treatment Solutions at ITC Grand Chola, Chennai, bringing together government representatives, industry experts, researchers and sustainability practitioners to deliberate on nature-based approaches to wastewater management. The session explored the potential of sustainable, decentralized and nature-inspired treatment systems to address wastewater challenges, strengthen environmental protection and support resilient urban communities in Tamil Nadu.