

Dr. Tanvir Arfin, Scientist–D, Air Quality Management Division, CSIR-NEERI, delivered an invited talk on “Urban Sources of Particulate Matter” at A.N. College, Patna. The session highlighted the urgent need to identify and address major pollution sources contributing to public health crises, environmental degradation, and economic losses. It also emphasized the importance of sustainable solutions to improve urban air quality and elevate the quality of life for city residents.

