

Generation of systematic data for various environmental components during construction phase is critical to predict and evaluate impacts of proposed developmental activity. Understanding the existing environment serves to define the focus of the environmental impact analysis and resources that need protection through mitigation, DGNP Awarded WORK Order for "EIA/ EMP Compliance/ Monitoring of various parameters for project Varsha at NAOB, Rambili, Visakhapatnam". The main aim is to generate the data for various environmental components and to prepare onsite & offsite emergency plan as part of disaster management plan as well as approximate estimate for equipment for continuous environmental monitoring.

Project Cost : Rs. 8.08 Crores & Project Duration : 5 years